

I am an Over the Road trucker driver. XM Satellite Radio is the only way I can receive the needed traffic and weather I need for cities that I am going to drive to that may be hundreds of miles away from where I am at the moment. It also allows me to better route my trips due to changing weather, and also give me early warning on traffic/construction problems.
The NAB sounds like a bunch of damn "Broadcast Nazi's" to me